Making WIC better ...

To better serve you, the North Carolina WIC Program changed to a new computer system

My Rights and Responsibilities — I understand that:

- 1. Standards for eligibility and participation in the WIC Program are the same for everyone, regardless of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.
- 2. I have applied to receive WIC benefits from the Federal Government. Program officials may check the truth of the information I have provided. I certify that the information I have provided to decide my eligibility is correct.
- 3. The local agency will decide whether I may receive WIC benefits. To appeal the decision, I must ask for a fair hearing no more than 60 days after the local agency tells me the decision.
- 4. The local agency will offer me health services and nutrition education and will encourage me to participate in these services.
- 5. Lying and hiding or withholding facts may mean that I will have to repay, in cash, the State Agency for the value of foods that I should not have received. I may be charged with breaking state and federal law. I certify that I do not receive benefits from another WIC clinic.
- 6. The WIC program may give information to other public organizations designated by the state health officer to enhance the health, education, or well-being of WIC applicants and participants. I understand that the organizations may contact me, but they may not give my information to anyone else without asking my permission.
- 7. Exchanging the NC eWIC card, WIC foods and/or formula, for cash, credit, non-food items, or non-WIC food, is a violation subject to federal and state sanctions.
- 8. The local agency may routinely ask me about my plans to move out of state. I am aware that I may obtain free of charge the Out of State Transfer Information Sheet that serves as Verification of Certification. This document contains key family information in an effort to minimize disruption in my WIC services when transferring out of state.
