

Client Assistance Program

The North Carolina Client Assistance Program (CAP) helps people who have disabilities with their services under the Rehabilitation Act. It makes sure they are treated fairly and can stand up for their rights when getting services to help them find a job or live independently.

The Client Assistance Program can help you:

- Know your rights
- Understand EIPD and DSB policies
- Work through problems with your case
- Ask for decisions to be looked at again
- Find more information
- Get in touch with other programs
