VIRTUAL COACHING SESSIONS

Please join your Kinnect trainers, Casie and Rick, for a live, virtual coaching session where you can take a deeper dive into family search and engagement topics ranging from barrier busting, search tools, engagement strategies and everything in between! Coaching is the process of equipping people with tools, knowledge, and opportunities they need to fully develop themselves to be more effective in their commitment to their work. Group coaching sessions will provide real-time support for child welfare professionals seeking to deepen their practice, navigate complex family dynamics, and build stronger connections with the people they serve. You MUST attend SEEK training prior to coaching sessions. Dates, details, and registration link can be found here.
