Can I get help paying my expenses at home?

For eligible older adults or adults with disabilities, the State/County Special Assistance In-Home Program (SA/IH) can help with living expenses such as food, shelter, clothing and other daily necessities. Assistance payments are provided monthly to eligible individuals living at home. While all counties participate, some counties have waiting lists.

Am I eligible?

Individuals with low income are potentially eligible if they are age 65 or older, or if they are under age 65 and at least age 18, and are disabled according to Social Security disability standards; and,

All applicants must:

- Need adult care home level of care as verified by a doctor but desire to continue living at home;
- Be a U.S. citizen or qualified alien;
- Have Medicaid eligibility established prior to SA/IH approval;
- Meet income and asset eligibility requirements;
- Be a resident of NC; and
- Meet all other Special Assistance eligibility requirements.

How do I qualify for Medicaid?

Eligibility for Medicaid for the SA/IH is not automatic. Applicants and recipients for this Program must be determined eligible for Medicaid as categorically needy prior to approval of SA/IH Program benefits. Medicaid eligibility is based on the federal poverty guidelines which are subject to change.

What is counted as income and assets?

Examples of countable income include wages, Social Security and Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Veteran's benefits and other retirement or unearned income. Your DSS caseworker can explain how income is budgeted for SA/IH eligibility and monthly payment.

Examples of assets that are counted are property, cash, savings, checking accounts, stocks, bonds, annuities, some IRAs, and the cash value of life insurance policies. Some assets that are not counted are a home used as a primary residence, personal belongings, irrevocable burial plans, some burial plots and burial insurance. One vehicle is excluded as a resource if it is the primary mode of transportation. Your DSS caseworker can also explain how assets are verified and counted in the SA/IH eligibility process.

How much will my Special Assistance check be?

The maximum payment amount a SA/IH beneficiary can receive varies from one individual to another. An assessment and service plan, completed with an Adult Services case manager determines what percentage of the maximum SA/IH payment an individual is eligible to receive. The NC General Assembly sets the maximum rate for individuals receiving Special Assistance.
