

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES DIVISION OF AGING AND ADULT SERVICES

Agging Services Listening Sessions for the 2023-2027 State Aging Services Plan

The North Carolina Division of Aging and Adult Services and the North Carolina Association of Area Agencies on Aging are co-hosting a series of listening sessions. These listening sessions will help identify the needs of North Carolina's older citizens, adults with disabilities, and their caregivers. The plan will provide valuable information regarding stakeholders and citizens throughout North Carolina and set goals and objectives to benefit older adults and their caregivers. The information gathered will inform North Carolina's 2023-2027 Aging Services Plan. Additionally, our partners, AARP NC and Hometown Strong, will be discussing the Age My Way Initiative.

The listening sessions will be held at the following locations:
