Plan Your Independence.
Achieve Your Potential.

If your disability prevents you from reaching your goals, the North Carolina Independent Living Rehabilitation Program (NCILRP) can help you achieve a more independent life by connecting you to training, resources, services, and activities in the community that you choose.

We help you develop a plan for independence
- professional guidance and counseling
- accessible housing information and placement assistance
- information and referrals for skills training, personal attendant, and other services and supports

Person-centered supports to achieve your goals
- live in your community of choice
- manage your responsibilities
- participate in family and community activities
- find employment

Partner with us for a more independent life
- home modifications
- vehicle modifications
- assistive and adaptive technology
- medical equipment

For more information regarding your specific needs, please visit: ncilrp.com
Your Plan for Independent Living

GUIDANCE
Our counselors help you develop goals and plan the services and supports you need to maximize your independence and assume more responsibility for your family, home and community life.

RESOURCES
Access services, healthcare, activities and more in your community.

HOUSING
Get information, referrals and assistance with home placements and modifications.

COMMUNITY TRANSITIONS
We facilitate transition from institutional to home and community-based settings and help you maintain independence in the community of your choice.

Person Centered Services

NCILRP provides services statewide through a network of 17 offices. For a referral, call one of our regional centers:

- Western: (828) 433-2230
- Central: (919) 775-4283
- Eastern: (252) 355-9010

State of North Carolina • Department of Health and Human Services
Independent Living Rehabilitation Program
www.ncdhhs.gov • NCDHHS is an equal opportunity employer and provider.
50,000 copies of this public document were printed at a cost of $1,783.19 or .04 per copy. 11/18