<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Work First (WF)</td>
<td>This program helps parents support themselves and their families by offering short-term training and other services to increase the chances of employment.</td>
<td>Parents who are unemployed or underemployed and have low or very low income with minor dependent child or children 18 years of age or younger.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Supplemental Security Income (SSI)</td>
<td>Supplemental Security Income (SSI) is a Federal income supplement program. It is designed to help aged, blind, and disabled people, who have little or no income; and It provides cash to meet basic needs for food, clothing, and shelter.</td>
<td>Individuals 65 years of age or older, or who are blind or disabled, would meet criteria for the Supplemental Security Income (SSI).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA)</td>
<td>Refugee Cash Assistance (also known as RCA, formally known as RRF) Program provides income to refugees who do not qualify for Work First Family Assistance (WFFA) or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and do not receive Match Grant. RMA is short-term cash benefits program available to eligible individuals to supplement their living shortly after arrival in the United States.</td>
<td>Individuals or couples without minor dependent children with ORR-eligible “Refugee” immigration status age 18 and up. Note: Since the SSI approval process is typically a lengthy one, the State authorizes receipt of RCA until the refugee applicant is approved for SSI, or until the 12-month RCA eligibility period expires--whichever comes first.</td>
