The Executive Director of the NC State Board of Elections is the Chief Election Official for purposes of administering the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA). If you need help or assistance with your NVRA duties, you should contact the State Board of Elections.
The State Board of Elections is committed to ensuring the success of North Carolina’s NVRA Program.
Voter Registration Agencies. - Every office in this State which accepts:

(1) Applications for a program of public assistance . . . ;
(2) Applications for State-funded State or local government programs primarily engaged in providing services to persons with disabilities . . .
(3) Claims for benefits under . . . , the Employment Security Law,
CERTAIN AGENCIES MUST OFFER VOTER REGISTRATION SERVICES

- Public Assistance Agencies
- Disability Services Agencies
- Employment Security Commission
Duties of Voter Registration Agencies. – A voter registration agency shall, unless the applicant declines, in writing, to register to vote, distribute with each application for service or assistance, and with each recertification, renewal, or change of address relating to such service or assistance:

1. A voter registration application;
2. Provide a form that contains the statements required by the National Voter Registration Act;
3. Provide to each applicant who does not decline to register to vote the same degree of assistance with regard to the completion of the registration application as is provided by the office with regard to the completion of its own forms.
"Applying to register or declining to register to vote will not affect the amount of assistance that you will be provided by this agency."

"If you would like help in filling out the voter registration application form, we will help you. The decision whether to seek or accept help is yours. You may fill out the application form in private."

"If you believe that someone has interfered with your right to register or to decline to register to vote, your right to privacy in deciding whether to register or in applying to register to vote, or your right to choose your own political party or other political preference, you may file a complaint with the NC State Board of Elections."
Prohibitions. – Agency staff shall not:

(1) Seek to influence an applicant's political preference or party registration;

(2) Display any such political preference or party allegiance;

(3) Make any statement to an applicant or take any action the purpose or effect of which is to discourage the applicant from registering to vote; or

(4) Make any statement to an applicant or take any action the purpose or effect of which is to lead the applicant to believe that a decision to register or not to register has any bearing on the availability of services or benefits.
Confidentiality of Declination to Register. – No information relating to a declination to register to vote in connection with an application made at a voter registration agency may be used for any purpose other than voter registration.
Transmittal From Agency to Board of Elections. – Any voter registration application completed at a voter registration agency shall be accepted by that agency in lieu of the applicant's mailing the application. Any such application so received shall be transmitted to the appropriate board of elections not later than five business days after acceptance, according to rules which shall be promulgated by the State Board of Elections.

National Voter Registration Act

As part of the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) of 1993, the agency with which you are conducting business is required by federal law to offer voter registration services to its clients. Applying to register or declining to register to vote will in no way affect the assistance that you will be provided by that agency.

If you would like assistance in filling out the voter registration application form or have questions regarding voter registration, explore the North Carolina State Board of Election's website or call toll free at 1-866-522-4723.

If you believe that someone has interfered with your right to register to vote, or your right to choose your own political party or other political preference, you may file a complaint with the North Carolina State Board of Elections.

Qualifications to Vote in North Carolina

To register and vote in North Carolina, a person must meet specific qualifications. If you choose to register to vote you must:

1. Be a citizen of the United States.
2. Be a resident of the county in which you are registering, and have lived at that actual address for at least 30 days prior to the date of the election.
3. Be at least 18 years old or older by the date of the next general election.
4. Not be serving any part of a sentence for a felony conviction, including probation or parole. If previously convicted of a felony, citizenship and voting rights are automatically restored upon completion of the sentence. No special documentation is required.
5. Cancel any previous registration in any other county or state.

All applications for registration must be received by your local County Board of Elections no later than the 25 days prior to any election for which you wish to vote.

Prospective voters between 16 and 17 years of age who meet the other qualifications listed above may pre-register to vote. To preregister, the person must indicate on the voter registration application that he or she is at least 16 years of age and that he or she understands that they must be 18 years of age on or before election day to vote. The preregistered voter shall then be automatically registered upon his or her 18th birthday.

National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (NVRA)

The NVRA is a federal statute that mandated dramatic changes to states’ voter registration procedures by January 1, 1995. North Carolina met the deadline and implemented all aspects of the Act.

The NVRA has often been called the “motor voter” bill because it required driver license offices to take applications for voter registration. It also included other agencies and a mail registration program. It affects the entire process of registration. It created new opportunities for historically underrepresented citizen groups to make initial application to register to vote.

Certain groups that may not have had the opportunity to apply to register to vote were offered the voter registration service when applying for services at a number of state agencies.

North Carolina Agencies required to offer the opportunity to register to vote are:

- Division of Services for the Blind
- Division of Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing
- Division of Medical Assistance
- Division of Public Health/WIC
- Division of Social Services
- Division of Rehabilitation Services
- Employment Security Commission
