I am pleased to report that family members, friends and professional colleagues made up a standing room only crowd at the Adams Building to honor DHHS Deputy Secretary, Sherry Bradsher as part of her retirement celebration.

Brenda Jackson, Cumberland County DSS Director spoke on behalf of the NC Association of County DSS Directors and acknowledged Sherry’s legacy of dedicated service and reminded all attending of Sherry’s strong ties to Social Services - she will always be “one of us”. Brenda also announced that Sherry will be formally recognized by NCACDSS at the upcoming Social Services Institute.

In addition to the many testimonials honoring Sherry’s illustrious career, a letter from Olivia Golden, Executive Director of The Center for Law and Social Policy (CLASP) was read which captures Sherry’s career contributions from a national perspective. Listed below are some of the excerpts from this letter:

“You are one of the most committed and talented state leaders I have met in several decades of working on the nation’s large public programs to help children, families, and low-income people, and it has been an honor to work with you on improving North Carolina’s service delivery. I have always been particularly impressed with the extraordinary variety of talents you bring to this work, as a doer, a leader and a teacher. You are always practical, yet never at the expense of vision. You are extremely smart and a quick thinker – but no matter how much you know, you never lose your curiosity and openness for more information and ideas...

You are steadfast in pursuing long-term goals but never rigid, always able to fine-tune your plans and learn from mistakes as well as accomplishments. You are deeply realistic and strategic and savvy about the many organizational and political undercurrents that every senior leader needs to handle – without ever losing your passion or turning cynical .... And most of all, as I know your colleagues are saying to you today as you celebrate your career and mark the milestone of your retirement, you have never, ever given up. Your persistence, commitment, sheer doggedness and dedication have made it possible for you to make positive change for children and families not just over months and years but over decades. Few reformers are able to combine your clarity of vision, your commitment to a better world, with your willingness to be in it for the long haul.”

Local Business Liaisons (LBLs) – Observations / Technical Assistance

• Funding Authorization are being posted make sure you match to your county budget. Look for any Increases/Decreases and make county personnel aware of any budget changes.

• Remember to code 0 (Zero) TANF CPS/FC/Adopt before R (TANF) when applicable.

• Monitor and Track your MOE spending monthly. Make a plan on how your county plans on meeting their MOE.

• Controller’s office changed web addresses. Link to Office of the Controller  https://www2.ncdhhs.gov/control/

• Monitor your SA cost. How is the increase impacting your budget?

• Plan ahead and don’t wait until the last minute to submit the 1571. If problems with upload may not get balanced by the deadline.

• The LIEAP funding amount shows on 411 report but remember not to code to it until December. If so it will be county money.

DSS Fiscal Monitors – Observations / Technical Assistance

• When supervisory, support and / or administrative staff perform direct services for clients, the supervisory, support or administrative time cannot be reported as 100 in TEC. The total minutes of the month must be calculated and reported based on the worker’s activities.

• Fees collected for Child Support paternity tests are reported under Part II Code 424 Paternity Test Fees as a negative entry, just as NCHC Fees are reported. The only time an entry reported under 424 will be a positive amount is when the agency has refunded to client(s) more funds than were collected during the month.

• All costs approved on an ADP Plan are to be reported under the appropriate ADP Part II Code.

• Agencies must have a way to properly account for time spent by employees performing non-DSS activities. Remember you are dealing with the reduction of FTEs, salary, and fringe, as well as other activities, such as mileage paid for traveling to and from non-DSS agencies or to training for non-DSS related activities.

• Refer to the fiscal manual on how to properly account for employees who are on leave for partial or whole months. *If the employee is out the entire month the effort should be reported just as it was the last month in which the employee worked.

Economic & Family Services

Last week (9/19 to 9/23) the remnants of Tropical Storm Julia dropped heavy rains across northeastern North Carolina, up to 17 inches in some locations. This caused flooding in northeast North Carolina with road closures, motor vehicle accidents, school closings/delays, and evacuations. As a result, the NC Governor signed and issued Executive Order #103 on 9/22, which declared a State of Emergency for flooding event in 11 northeast counties. It is noted that NC did not implement a Disaster SNAP (DSNAP) program in response to Tropical Storm Julia and subsequent flooding because no Presidential disaster declaration was made based on damage assessments conducted by a Preliminary Damage Assessment (PDA) team. Before any activity related to DSNAP begins, there must be a Presidential Disaster Declaration. Before the state makes a decision to request a DSNAP Program, it must first determine if the regular program can meet the needs of citizens. Current recipients who have lost food as a result of the disaster have 10 days from the date of the disaster to request a replacement of benefits, this is part of regular FNS policy, not part of the DSNAP program. Note that Executive Order #103 was terminated, effective at 11:59 PM on 9/27.

Child Support Services

The September edition takes a broader look at the importance of maintaining strong, positive relationships with courts and the importance of civil justice in child support. The growing rate of incarnated mothers triggers a variety of adverse outcomes for children and reduces resources for their family. Many grandparents have assumed primary parenting roles for their grandchildren. Find out which resources can help.

Lifespan Respite Care Program Expansion Supplement
The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services has been awarded a one-year Lifespan Respite Care Program Expansion Supplement from the U.S. Administration for Community Living. This one-year grant will provide approximately 150 respite vouchers to family caregivers of people with special needs of any age who do not qualify or are on a waiting list for other publicly-funded respite programs and are determined to be in need of the service.

The grant award is managed by the NC Division of Aging and Adult Services (DAAS) and is the fifth Lifespan Respite Care Program grant awarded to DAAS since 2009. The vouchers will be administered by the North Carolina Respite Care Coalition through a contract with DAAS. More detailed information and an online application for these $500 consumer-directed respite vouchers will be available online at northcarolinarespitecarecoalition.org later this Fall.
Membership in the NC Respite Care Coalition is free and members will receive further information as it becomes available directly through email. Persons may join the Coalition through the organization’s website. Agencies who work with family caregivers are encouraged to familiarize themselves with this respite voucher program and assist family caregivers who may benefit from the service with the brief application.

An advisory team of more than 50 representatives from NC DHHS divisions, local and regional providers, family caregivers, and area non-profit organizations provide counsel and assistance to the DAAS project leadership team on a variety of activities related to the NC Lifespan Respite Care Project. In addition to direct respite care, the NC Lifespan Respite Project seeks to expand and enhance respite services, improve coordination and dissemination of services, streamline access to programs, and improve overall quality, utilization and sustainability of respite services across the lifespan. What to know more about the Targeting program with key assistance? Watch a short YouTube video that explains the program in simple terms.

The Targeting program with Key Assistance is a partnership between the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency. The program makes a minimum of 10% of the federal Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) units accessible to extremely low income persons with disabilities. The funding increases the number of tax credit units able to serve extremely low income persons with disabilities by providing landlords with an additional operating subsidy for extremely low income tenants. The DHHS Division of Aging and Adult Services uses Housing Support Coordinators who refer tenants to the available units, and NCHFA processes the rental assistance. The households served by the program pay rent according to income. The Key Program served over 2100 households in 2015-2016.
