

Division of Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

DSDHH

Communicate

Promoting equal access and effective communication for people who are Deaf, Hard of Hearing and DeafBlind

Collaborate

Partnering with community organizations, public service providers, consumers and families

Connect

Educating, supporting and providing resources to community organizations, governmental agencies, service providers, employers, consumers and families

Providing free services statewide

For more information, go to our website www.ncdhhs.gov/dsdhh or call to find a regional center near you 1-800-851-6099

DSDHH Services

Helping you communicate...

- Hearing Aid Resources
- American Sign Language (ASL) Interpreting Resources
- Assistive Technology Demos and Assistive Listening Device Access
- Hearing Screenings
- ASL Assessment and Support

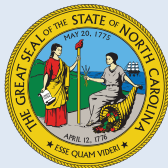

Helping you collaborate...

- Advocacy
- Education and Awareness
- Emergency Preparedness
- ASL Interpreter Learning Opportunities
- Community Resource Referrals

Helping you connect...

- Equipment Distribution Service (EDS)
- National DeafBlind Equipment Distribution Program (NDBEDP)
- Community Events
- Video Relay Resources

All DSDHH services are free of charge

NC DEPARTMENT OF
HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Division of Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

www.ncdhhs.gov • www.ncdhhs.gov/dsdhh

NCDHHS is an equal opportunity employer and provider.
35,000 copies of this public document were printed at a cost of $3,048.91 or 0.087 per copy. 3/19