

NCDHHS & HBCUs MENTAL HEALTH SUMMIT

PEELING BACK THE LAYERS ON MINORITY BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services is partnering with Historically Black Colleges and Universities to assess, in depth, the mental health needs of minority students on campus, and the effects of the impacts from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Wednesday, Feb. 23, 2022
12:00 – 3:00 PM

Registration Link:
<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/1654975427365445133>

Featuring a panel discussion with Students and Representatives from NC HBCUs

This discussion panel will address the issues faced on HBCU campuses and how HBCU administrators are addressing the mental health impacts of the pandemic on students and faculty.

#hbcupride, #blackexcellence, #blackmentalhealthmatters, #minoritymentalhealthmatters, #hbcubuzz, #melanin, #blackunity, #minorityunity, #diversityequityinclusion, #selflove, #mentalhealthawareness, #therapy